

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

(Editor's Note: The Brass Ring is good for one free ride on The Washington Merry-Go-Round, and has already been bestowed upon the President and his Secretary of State. Today's free rider is the Secretary of War, Harry Woodring.)

WASHINGTON—Niece and most inoffensive man in the Roosevelt Cabinet is Harry Woodring, accidental Secretary of War.

Harry's life has been just one accident after another, and being very much like a cat with nine lives, he somehow manages to land on top.

Harry's first big political accident was the rift between Kansas Republicans in 1930 which found liberal Governor Clyde Reed at odds with conservative John Hamilton, now chairman of the Republican National Committee. While their backs were turned, Harry sneaked into the Governor's chair in Topeka.

The next accident occurred in 1933 when Pat Malloy of Oklahoma was offered the job of Assistant Secretary of War, and being in a high-hat mood refused, only to wake up next morning with terrible pains of anguish to find that the vacancy had been given to Harry Woodring.

Accident No. 3 occurred with the death of the Secretary of War, George Dern, and accident No. 4 followed close on its heels when the President discovered a law providing that no "acting" Secretary of War could remain "acting" for more than thirty days. So with other things to think about in the middle of the 1936 campaign, Roosevelt made Harry his bona fide Secretary of War.

Everyone expected that the President would reshuffle his Cabinet after re-election and that Harry would be shuffled out. But here the stork played into Harry's hands. He and his lovely young wife, the daughter of Senator Marcus Coolidge, have been so busy having babies that the President, being rather a paternal person, hasn't had the heart to transfer Harry elsewhere.

Other accidents have occurred in the life of Harry Woodring, and one of the more recent ones has

INSURGENT ARMY LAYS SIEGE TO MOUNTAIN PASS

Hendaye, France (At the Spanish Frontier). Feb. 24.—(AP)—Spanish insurgents, fighting their way down the Sagunto highway southeast of Teruel, laid siege today to the mountain pass of Escandornio where strong government barricades barred the route to the Mediterranean sea-coast.

The Iron insurgent command declared Catalva defenses were broken by the continuing insurgent offensive. A second column reported consolidating positions between Villa Espesa and Villastar, where advance units moved ahead a mile and a half.

A headquarters bulletin said a total of 16,290 prisoners were taken by the insurgents during the final stages of reoccupation of Teruel, and more than 9,000 government dead were buried.

The campaign through the Al-farriba valley north of Teruel brought 19 villages into possession of the insurgents, military dispatches said, including 14 which had been held by the government since the start of the war. The insurgents listed capture of nine artillery batteries, and 12 tanks and 22 government planes shot down.

The strategic position at Villa Espesa, on the left flank of the government's front extending through Castrolvo and El Castellar was captured yesterday, insurgent advisers said, after an insurgent push three miles south of Teruel.

Take Precautions Against Smallpox in University City

Champaign, Ill., Feb. 24.—(AP)—Dr. Howard Gowen, director of the Champaign-Urbana public health district, today excluded from school all children who have not had smallpox or been immunized.

The action was taken, he said, after three cases were reported in one Champaign grade school. He estimated that of 7,000 school children, only 30 per cent were effectively immunized.

The order affects parochial schools, kindergartens, the University of Illinois high school and activities of the community recreation commission.

Physicians and the health district board said the situation was "not alarming," but prevalence of the disease in the single school, demanded "extreme precaution."

FIVE IN COURT RESULT OF RIOT AT BUND'S MEET

Turbulent Session of Chicago Bund Ended in a Battle

Chicago, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Five persons, including a Northwestern University professor emeritus, were taken into court today, the aftermath of a turbulent meeting of the German-American Bund that broke up in a fist fight.

The disturbance occurred at the conclusion of a speech at the Germania Club last night by Wilhelm Kunze, New York, the Bund's director of public relations.

Dr. Eric Von Schroetter, professor emeritus of romance languages at Northwestern, was charged with disorderly conduct after an altercation with uniformed Bund members who, he said, tried to eject him when he asked Kunze a question from the floor.

John Fisher, 18, and Ray Pauly, 17, declared they were set upon by Bund members when they refused to give the Nazi salute. They signed disorderly conduct complaints against William Wernicke, 30, who said he was a broker and who signed counter-complaints against the youths.

Camera Smashed
Emil Horitz, one of the guards who escorted Kunze to the hall, was arrested on a charge of malicious mischief, filed by a Chicago newspaper photographer who said Horitz smashed his camera.

The cases of Wernicke, Fischer, Pauly and Von Schroetter were continued in Boys' court to March 11 at the request of Wernicke. Horitz's case was continued in Felony court to March 4.

Dr. Von Schroetter said Bund members tried to eject him when he asked the question: "If the Nazi movement is divinely inspired, why are the churches in Germany against it?"

Kunze ignored it and the question was repeated. Police intervened after shouts.

Mrs. Lloyd Spencer was Found Dead by Husband Yesterday

Mrs. Katherine Dana Spencer, wife of Lloyd E. Spencer, died suddenly at her home, 413 Depot avenue, yesterday afternoon, her husband finding her dead upon returning home. She had been in failing health for some time and under the care of a physician. Mrs. Spencer was a life long resident of Dixon, having been born in this city May 27, 1877. She is survived by her husband and one brother, Fred D. Dana. Funeral services will be conducted at the residence Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. B. Norman Burke, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, officiating and with interment in Oakwood.

VOLIVA AIDE DEAD

Zion, Ill.—(AP)—Joseph L. Bishop, 49, former city attorney and legal representative of Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of the Christian Apostolic church, died yesterday. Funeral services will be held Saturday.

LOSS REPORTED

Chicago — (AP) — The Chicago Rapid Transit Company, serving Chicago and its suburbs, reported yesterday a net loss of $768,813 from 1937 operations.

Congratulatory

Chicago, Feb. 24.—(AP)—When John Caspar, 45, walked into a tavern, the drinks were always on the house.

Detective Fred Stuebeck said Caspar, after greeting the owner, would represent himself as a federal internal revenue agent, and then proceed to sample the whisky.

"And he never left," the detective said, "without congratulating the owner for obeying the law."

Caspar was held for questioning by federal agents.

Hungary Reopens Question of War Debts; Offers Pay; No Interest

Washington, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Hungary revived the whole question of war debts today by announcing a proposal for settling her obligation to the United States.

She offered to pay "one hundred cents on the dollar" of her original indebtedness, but minus interest.

Payments would total $1,207,000 divided into 30 annual non-interest bearing installments of about $39,000. The original debt was $1,685,000 from which Hungary would subtract the amount she already had paid on interest and principal—$478,000.

Hungarian Minister John Peleyni in a statement, said the proposal: "Has nothing to do with the debts of any other country toward the United States."

Has nothing to do with any trade agreement with the United States,

Just One Girl

New York, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Six thousand men and a girl—that's the situation at the City college of New York.

The lone co-ed, Gladys Lovinger, 18, first girl ever enrolled full-time at the college, is too busy studying engineering to worry over the preponderance of males.

"I don't even know they're here," she said. "And anyway, who wants to get married?"

LABOR BOARD'S ADMINISTRATION ATTACKED TODAY

"National Disgrace" Is Characterization of Senator Burke

Washington, Feb. 24.—(AP)—A demand for an increase in the appropriation of the National Labor Relations board drew from Senator Burke (D-Neb.) today a declaration that the board's administration of the labor act had been a "national disgrace."

Chairman Glass (D-Va.), commenting on the Senate appropriations committee's reduction in the proposed labor board appropriation from $2,955,000 to $2,570,000, told the Senate "some of us think the board ought to be abolished."

The proposed labor board appropriation is one of the items in the $1,400,000,000 independent offices bill which came before the Senate for consideration today.

Amendments Rejected
Another appropriation measure—the $250,000,000, emergency relief bill—was sent to a Senate-House conference, after the House refused to accept Senate amendments to it.

The Senate, in approving that appropriation yesterday, struck out a House provision to deny relief money to aliens who had not signified an intention to become citizens and voted to exempt the appropriation from an existing law requiring the works progress administration to divide its money into equal monthly portions.

In the Senate debate, Senator Thomas (D-Utah), objecting to the committee's reduction in the labor board item, said it might "cripple and injure" the administration of the labor act.

House rejection of the Senate amendments to the relief bill may keep the emergency legislation from President Roosevelt's desk until next week.

Before passing the House-approved measure, 67-1—Senator Bailey (D-N. C.) voted "no"—the Senate made these major revisions:

Major Revisions

1. It authorized the WPA to spend any part of the appropriation when the need arose, without regard to the present "monthly apportionment" rule.

2. It struck out a House provision permitting relief payments to aliens who have "lived honorably" in this country for 10 years, but who for some reason are ineligible for citizenship. (Present law extends relief to aliens only if they have filed for citizenship papers.)

Having finished the relief debate, the Senate turned today to the bill appropriating 1939 funds for independent Federal agencies.

The House had no important legislation before it, but its labor committee met to consider the advisability of reviving the 1934 NRA wage standards and differentials in a new wage-hour bill.

ABDUCTION ALLEGED

Marion, Ill.—(AP)—Deputy Sheriff Eph Phemister said today a man and woman had been arrested in connection with the reported abduction and robbery of a Marion insurance man. Phemister said Lindolph Brown, the insurer, picked up two hitchhikers, who overpowered and robbed him, then took his car keys. He said no charges had been filed against the couple held in the case.

JAPANESE ALERT AGAINST THREAT OF AERIAL RAID

Enemy Bombers Reported Heading Toward Tokyo Area

Tokyo, Feb. 24.—(AP)—All aviation and naval units in southwestern Japan were on the alert against Chinese air raids tonight after a large area of the Japanese homeland had felt the dread thrill of air attack warnings for several hours.

Twelve big enemy bombing planes, escorted by fast pursuit craft, were reported at 11:10 A. M. (8:10 P. M. Wednesday, C. S. T.) to be roaring over the China Sea to carry the war to the main islands of Japan. Formal air raid warnings were issued, but the enemy failed to arrive.

Japanese fighting ships swarmed into the heavens over Formosa, Japan's island colony raided by the Chinese yesterday in the first air attack in history on Japanese territory, and over Kyushu, the industrially and strategically important southwestern island of Japan proper.

The western portion of the main island, Honshu, also was under raid warnings for several hours.

Watch Anxiously
While Kyushu still watched anxiously for enemy raiders, Kagoshima, southernmost major city of the island, suffered a disastrous fire of mysterious origin, apparently not connected with the war.

Two persons were killed, many injured, 1,500 made homeless and 350 houses destroyed.

First direct word from Taihoku, Formosa capital, said the American consulate there was shaken but not damaged in the bombardment.

SEARCH BASE

Shanghai, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Japanese warplanes raided Chinese airbases on the southeast China coast today in search for the base from which Chinese yesterday bombarded the Japanese island of Formosa.

On the widespread central China warfront northwest of Nanking, Japanese columns drove to the south against the Lunghai railway corridor separating conquered portions of North China and the Yangtze river valley.

In southern Shantung province a Japanese column occupied the walled city of Jichaohsien, near the east coast.

Spirited guerrilla fighting was reported in the Shantung peninsula, behind Japanese lines.

Temporary Order Against Bookies Signed By Judge

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 24.—(AP)—District Judge John Rine signed a temporary restraining order today against 76 Omaha horse race bookmakers and the Nebraska news service, which supplied the "bookies" with race information, and set the date for hearing on a temporary injunction for March 29.

Attorney General Richard C. Hunter of Nebraska filed application today for the injunction naming 354 individuals connected with the establishments.

The application charged the defendants with willfully disregarding the statutory and constitutional provisions of the state of Nebraska prohibiting gambling, betting or otherwise gaming for money.

RAILROAD EXONERATED

Chicago, Feb. 24.—(AP)—The Illinois Commerce Commission exonerated the Wabash railroad today in connection with the collision of its fast Chicago limited and a truck, causing derailment of the train Tuesday. Blame for the wreck of the six-car train was placed upon Frank Gregson, truck driver, who was killed. The report said he ignored flasher signals and drove into the path of the train.

Joe Louis Knocks Out Mann

Joe Louis successfully defended his world heavyweight title by knocking out Nathan Mann of New Haven, Conn. in the third round at Madison Square Garden in New York last night. Referee Arthur Donovan is shown counting out Mann as the challenger tries to get to his feet with the aid of the ropes.

JAPANESE DIET HOTLY OPPOSES MOBILIZATION

Tokyo, Feb. 24.—(AP)—The national mobilization bill, which would give the government broad wartime control of business, finance and the private lives and property of the citizens, brought bitter, uproarious rebellion in parliament today.

In one of the most turbulent scenes of Japanese parliamentary history, members of the lower House howled for Foreign Minister Koki Hirota to answer questions put by Takao Saito, a legal expert. Members opposing the bill argued it was unconstitutional.

Hirota attempted to have Masao Taki, president of the planning board, answer the questions but members of the House shouted him down. The speaker recessed the House to quell the disorder.

Later Justice Minister Suehiko Shiono replied for the government and a new disturbance developed before the House adjourned overnight.

A near riot marked the first five minutes of debate. The disturbance was so long and loud that the speaker ordered a recess.

The proposed law contains stern, detailed restrictions on foreign trade and internal and external banking. One article would give the government the right completely to suppress newspapers.

A cabinet crisis was predicted if the government attempted to submit the bill to a vote in its original form. It has been referred twice to a planning board for amendments.

Pneumonia Fatal to Edw. Haldeman

Edward H. Haldeman passed away at his home, 208 Seventh street, Wednesday evening, his passing resulting from an attack of pneumonia. He was born in Streator July 27, 1863, and was aged 74 years, six months and 26 days. He had been a resident of Dixon for the past 30 years, during which time he had been in the employ of the Reynolds Wire Company for 24 years.

Surviving are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Williams of Kewanee and Mrs. Ida Ohlinger of Streator; two sons, Ora and Clinton, of Dixon; one step-daughter, Mrs. Margaret Turner, of Madison, Wis.; ten grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at the home and at 9:30 at St. Patrick's Catholic church, the Rev. J. J. Burke officiating. Interment will be in Oakwood.

Pershing is Losing Ground Doctors Say

Tucson, Ariz., Feb. 24.—(AP)—Physicians attending Gen. John J. Pershing said today the World War commander, veteran of many campaigns, was losing ground in his critical illness.

An official bulletin from the sick room shortly before 11 a. m. CST, said the general was "definitely weaker and somewhat apathetic." "This may be only temporary or it may presage more serious consequences," said the bulletin, issued by Dr. Roland Davidson and Lt. Col. S. L. Marietta.

"General Pershing is not as well this morning as he was yesterday," the bulletin began. "He had a restless night and while he is free from pain, he is definitely weaker and somewhat apathetic."

"While there is no heart failure his physicians are not fully satisfied with his heart condition."

Diet Futile

Philadelphia, Feb. 24.—(AP)—A diet of watermelons, prescribed by physicians in treating a kidney ailment, failed to save the life of Dorothy Rideout, 11.

She died last night after fighting the inroads of acute nephritis since June.

A search in several states was necessary to find the out-of-season melons when doctors decided during Christmas week that such a diet might help restore the girl to health.

PROPOSED NAVY PROGRAM MEETS SOME CRITICISM

Opponents of Increased Fleet Heard by Senate Committee

Washington, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Representative Koppelman (D-Conn.) asserted today Great Britain had "double-crossed" the United States by "going along with dictators."

Testifying against the proposed $1,050,000,000 naval expansion program, before the House naval committee Koppelman said Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's action looking toward an agreement with Italy had made it impossible for this country to depend on Britain.

Another witness—Representative McGrath (D-Calif.)—suggested that England could not be blamed for looking beyond the United States for cooperation in view of the feeling in this country against entangling foreign alliances.

Other Critics Heard
A third congressional foe of the proposed fleet increase, Representative O'Malley (D-Wis.), asserted 90 per cent of the propaganda for a bigger Navy came from "perfidious alibion."

Instead of a big Navy, O'Malley said this country needs gas masks, bomb-proof shelters and training for the civilian population.

"What's the matter with the heads of our Army and Navy when they have neglected this form of preparation?" he demanded.

Still other criticism of the naval program came from Representative Southoff (Prog-Wis) who asserted this country's whole method of determining defense needs was "archaic."

He criticized President Roosevelt for failure to invoke the neutrality act against Japan. "It's most inconsistent for this country to have a policy of quarantining aggressor nations," he said, "and at the same time make a profit by selling them the very things with which they can go out and commit wholesale murder."

Camera Club Held Print Competition

The Rock River Camera club held a print competition at the meeting Monday evening which was well attended by members and guests. Prizes were awarded for the two best prints, the awards being made to John Mills for his print of the Buckingham Fountain and second to Rev. H. J. Doran for his entry entitled, "Expectancy." Four entries were also chosen for honorable mention as follows: Durwood Brader, "Horses Grazing" and "Irene"; William Rush, "Catnap"; and Arnold LaCour, "Woodpath." The entries in the competition are now on display in the windows of the business department of the Evening Telegraph, and are attracting much attention.

After 50 Years

Los Angeles, Feb. 24.—(AP)—On his golden wedding anniversary, Hyman D. Stack was sued for separate maintenance by Mrs. Ella Stack.

The couple was married in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 23, 1888. Mrs. Stack charged her husband deserted her in 1932. She asked $2,000 a month permanent alimony, $20,000 for lawyers' fees and $2,500 court costs.

Dr. Townsend Changes His Mind; Will Appeal His Jail Sentence

Washington, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Dr. Francis E. Townsend, who came back to the Capital to serve a 30-day jail sentence for contempt of a congressional committee, announced today he would appeal to the Supreme Court instead of going to jail.

The elderly advocate of old age pensions stepped off a train with the expressed intention of serving the jail sentence imposed by a United States District court. But after conferring with his attorney, Elisha Hanson, he issued a statement saying he would let his case go to the Supreme Court.

Explaining his change of attitude, Dr. Townsend said: "The principle involved is so tremendous, however, that I feel as do hundreds of my friends that this case should be fought to a finish."

"Being without funds to prosecute a further appeal, I have asked my counsel who have represented me up to now if they would be willing to carry on for me and they have agreed to do so because of the importance of the principle involved and their sense of obligation to a client. * * *

They will now proceed to ask the Supreme Court to review the case."

His original decision to serve the sentence, he said, was prompted by his lack of personal funds.

COUNTY ROADS POSTED TODAY BY OFFICIALS

Supt. Fred Leake Outlines Provision of Authorizing Law

County Superintendent of Highways Fred W. Leake this morning ordered the annual posting of all roads comprising the county highway system and highway commissioners in the various townships were placing the posting signs at once. The order will be in effect for at least 45 days and is to be rigidly enforced.

"It is not the desire to work a hardship on any truck or automobile driver, but the conditions of the roads comprising the county highway system is such that it is necessary to take this action to prevent their complete destruction," Superintendent Leake stated today. "The order will be rigidly enforced day and night and to assure enforcement every county patrolman has been deputized to enforce the provisions of the load limit law."

"In past years there have been truck drivers who have waited until night to haul loads over the roads, which caused serious damage, but this offense will not be tolerated this spring as the county system will be patrolled day and night for the purpose of apprehending such offenders."

Serious Condition

Superintendent Leake stated that after making a county wide inspection, he had found the county highways to be in a serious condition, due to the unusual early spring weather conditions. For the accommodation of passenger traffic the highway commissioners and county patrolmen will attempt to keep the roads open to traffic by limiting the weight of all loads. The load limit order, which is authorized under section 134 of the 1935 session law, provides as follows:

"No vehicle shall be operated over the state aid road system where the gross weight of the vehicle and the load exceeds 7,000 pounds, or a load of more than 400 pounds per inch on rear tires, where single wheels are used, and if the vehicle is equipped with dual tires, the load per inch shall not exceed 300 pounds per tire, and in all cases of tires, dual or otherwise, equipped with chains or other non-skid devices, the load per inch on rear tires shall not exceed 300 pounds."

"Any type of tractor operating on metal tires with non-skid devices is prohibited. The load limit on farm wagons with metal tires shall not exceed the following: load limit on two inch narrow tire wagons, 2,500 pounds; three inch steel tired wagons, 2,750 pounds and four inch steel tired wagons, 3,250 pounds."

Louis Signs Today To Fight Thomas

New York, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Joe Louis, who knocked out Nathan Mann in the third round last night, today signed to defend his world heavyweight boxing title against Harry Thomas of Eagle Bend, Minn., in a 15-round bout at Chicago's stadium, April 1.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Joe Triner, chairman of the Illinois boxing commission, said today he approved a 15-round heavyweight championship bout for the Chicago Stadium April 1 between Champion Joe Louis and Harry Thomas of Chicago. Triner said the fight would sign contracts this afternoon in New York.

Triner said circumstances of Louis' title defense against Nathan Mann in New York last night and Thomas' recent showing against Max Schmeling, the former champion, convinced him the Chicago battler would be a "capable opponent" for the Detroit Brown Bomber.

Altenburg Rites Friday Afternoon

The funeral of William Altenburg, 25, of Franklin Grove, who passed away at the Katherine Shaw Betha hospital here Tuesday after ten days' illness with pneumonia, will be held at the Unger funeral home in Rochelle Friday afternoon, it was announced today.

The deceased, who had been employed in Ashton and Franklin Grove garages for several years, was born in Rodette, N. D., Aug. 19, 1912, and was married July 3, 1935, to June Arends of Pine Rock township, Ogle county. Surviving are his widow, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Altenburg, who live north of Ashton, three brothers, Ivan, who lives north of Ashton, and Zane and Murray, both at home; a sister, Audrey, at home, and his grandmother, Mrs. Pauline Altenburg, Franklin Grove.

HENRY PATTEN DEAD

Chicago, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Henry J. Patten, 75, brother and business associate of the late "wheat king," James A. Patten, died today. He had been ill since February 7. A daughter survives. Burial will be in the family plot at Somonauk, Ill., his birth-place.

TERM CASH DEAL OF FORMER POWER FIRM HEAD, FRAUD

Got $2,000,000 From Subsidiary Of His Concern

Chicago, Feb. 24—(AP)—Federal Judge William H. Holly has described as "fraudulent" transactions by which Harley L. Clarke, former president of the Utilities Power and Light Corporation, obtained $2,000,000 in cash from a subsidiary of the concern.

At the same time the court ruled the Atlas Corporation, holder of a major interest in the affairs of the parent company, was entitled to vote 100,000 shares of the common stock of utilities power and light at the forthcoming meeting of stockholders Feb. 28.

The ruling was expected to enable the Atlas Corporation to nominate and elect a majority of the board of directors of the parent company.

Of the $2,000,000 transaction, Judge Holly said:

"There can be little doubt that, desiring approximately this amount of money with which to meet his obligations to a New York bank, he (Clarke) devised a scheme by which, through his control of Utilities Power and Light Corporation, Utilities Power and Light Securities Company and Webster Securities Corporation, he could obtain the money of Utilities Power and Light Corporation to pay his private debts.

"All of these transactions are marked by an utter lack of good faith. Fraudulent is a rather mild term to apply to them."

The decision was given after an extended hearing during which the Associated Investing Corporation, holder of a minority interest in the parent company, attacked the title of Frederick Z. Marx, trustee for the Webster Securities Company, Clark's personal holding company, to 100,000 shares of stock and the title of the Atlas Corporation to the same stock which it had obtained as pledge.

Judge Holly also ruled a similar but more involved transaction with 30,000 shares of the same company also was fraudulent and that Marx should hold title to them as trustee. Willoughby G. Walling, banker who had been appointed trustee of the Utilities Power and Light Company several months ago, died suddenly Wednesday. A temporary trustee to succeed him was expected to be appointed within a day or two. The company is undergoing reorganization under section 77S of the amended bankruptcy act.

George Washington Cable's books were based on the life of the Louisiana Creoles.

REP. PARSONS' HEARING SET FOR MARCH 3

Washington, Feb. 24—(AP)—March 3 has been set as the date for arraignment of Representative Parsons (D-Ill.) on charges of refusing to give his name after an automobile accident.

The Golconda congressman said at yesterday's hearing before Corporation Counsel George D. Nelson that he might ask for a jury trial on the charges, which he termed a "frameup." He said he was not at fault in the collision.

Albert V. Nesbitt of Cleveland, driver of the other car, was charged with failing to give a proper signal in pulling away from the curb. The automobile was owned by his sister, Mrs. Margaret Ellis of Washington. She and Nesbitt testified they pursued Parsons' car for about 30 minutes after the collision.

At yesterday's preliminary hearings Mrs. Ellis told of Parsons' automobile halting for a stoplight, and "I tried to open the door and stepped on the running board. He opened the door and shoved me from the running board."

Parsons denied pushing Mrs. Ellis from the running board. "She attempted to open the door beside me," Parsons said, "and I pulled it closed. She did not step on the running board. I did not touch her and she did not fall from my car."

Parsons said he did not wait to give his name after the collision because he planned to report the accident to police and "I certainly was not going to let anybody engage me in a brawl on the street."

Mortality Drop Recorded In U. S. Largest Cities

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 24—(AP)—Dr. A. C. Baxter, acting health director announced that reports from 86 of the largest cities in the United States show a sharp drop in mortality from all causes for the first five weeks of 1938.

A total of 45,719 deaths were reported for the period this year, compared with 54,488 last.

Reports from the 48 states, Dr. Baxter said, show measles as the most prevalent notifiable disease, reaching general epidemic proportions in most of the middle western states, in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and North Carolina.

Smallpox was up 100 per cent in the country, with 3618 cases reported the first six weeks of this year against 1828 in 1937.

In Illinois, measles nearly doubled the previous high recorded prevalence, with 6278 fresh cases last week. The previous highest weekly incidence was 3230 for the last week in March, 1935.

Long Stay

Elgin Man Patient in Hospital Quarter of a Century

Elgin, Ill., Feb. 24—(AP)—Francis Joseph Pask, who went to the hospital "for three weeks," has stayed 25 years.

Where once he looked forward to release from the institution, his chief interest today was his 78th birthday anniversary on March 12 and the opening of the major baseball season a month later.

"My chief amusement now is listening to the baseball games over the radio," he said. Because of deafness, he uses headphones.

Pask, known affectionately as "Shanty" to the nurses, was hospitalized Feb. 18, 1913, a year after he fell from the roof of a summer cottage he was building. During that year he treated his injured leg himself but finally was persuaded to go to Sherman hospital. He was told he would be well again in about three weeks; paralysis developed, however, and he lost the use of his legs.

His mother, who then was 75 and a former practical nurse, accompanied him and cared for him until she died in the hospital seven years later. All other members of his immediate family are dead. Pask never married.

Miss Mildred Brown, superintendent of nurses, said "Shanty" was the hospital's most popular patient. When he first entered his callous numbered from 30 to 40 a day. Many since have died and but three or four still make daily visits.

Pask reads the Bible three times daily and is happy to read it aloud to other patients during the one hour a day he is permitted to sit in a wheel chair.

"I used to knit and make rugs," he said, "but now I just read."

PLENTY DENTAL WORK
Chicago—(AP)—There are enough cavities in the teeth of the American people to keep the country's 60,000 dentists busy for 100 years.

Dr. Haidee Weeks of New Orleans told delegates to the Chicago Dental society's convention.

To which the doctor added that the missing link between all this potential business and the dentist is educating the people to take the cavities to the dental chair.

In 1935, there were only 801,000 agricultural workers in England, as compared to 996,000 in 1923.

Dickson Follows Crisler To Post At Michigan U.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Feb. 24—(AP)—Campbell Dickson will follow Head Football Coach Herbert O. Crisler from Princeton university to the University of Michigan.

Crisler, recently named to succeed Harry Kipke as Michigan coach has announced the appointment of Dickson as end coach to succeed Bennie Oosterbaan.

Dickson's appointment followed that of Earl Martineau, also of the Princeton staff, as Michigan backfield coach.

Dickson, a 1924 graduate of the University of Chicago, served as assistant coach in football, basketball and track at Minnesota in 1924-25, was assistant in football at Chicago from 1925 to 1928, and head coach at Beloit (Wis.) college in 1928, assistant at the University of Wisconsin the following year, and went to Princeton as assistant in 1932.

AMERICA, WAKE UP!

Under the stirring title, "America, Wake Up!", a crusade to arouse nation-wide support for the basic principles of the American system of government is sweeping the country.

A trenchant "restatement of principles," issued by the Union League club of Chicago, is the vehicle for the crusade, nothing else. Citizens everywhere who have heard of the restatement have welcomed the strong, simple summarization of the ideals it expresses.

Adopted by the club's members by referendum in the proportion of 24 to 1, the principles are now being made available to the nation in essence as guidance in judging the loyalty of the elected representatives.

The crusade urges voters to support those in office who have stood fearlessly for these principles at the risk of their public career and only those candidates whose platform pledges should hold them unwaveringly to the tenets of loyalty.

"This crusade," said Nicholas J. Conrad, president of the club, "will bring us out of the fog caused by the smoke screen of propaganda. The restatement is capturing the imagination of men and women wherever it is met."

"America's greatest need is a rebirth of the patriotic instinct. There is unrest everywhere and our citizens require some one thing which all can uphold in common, to which all can rally. That is what we have to offer them."

The restatement of principles is phrased in strong simple language that everybody understands. People are stirred when they read again these old and hallowed foundation rocks of the republic. Their patriotic pride swells anew as they review the forgotten tenets upon which successive generations of Americans have built a civilization, cultural and material, which is the outstanding achievement of the ages.

The restatement declares the basic law of the land, the constitution should never be nullified or changed except by amendment as provided by the constitution itself. The restatement further asserts:

"The division of the people's representatives into three departments, legislative, executive and judicial, is a foundation stone of the American system. x x x The concentration of power in any of the three departments x x x can create a dictatorship."

The guarantees of "free speech, free press and freedom of assembly and worship x x x protect the rights of all minorities and are the heritage of the humblest citizen."

The restatement enumerates as subversive tendencies the use of official power and public funds to influence elections and control congressmen, the centralization of authority in Washington, the building up of class distinctions, dictation by blocs and pressure groups, and the infringement by violence, of the basic laws "by organized groups relying on official toleration for such lawlessness."

OIL FOR HOW LONG?

Fears were expressed recently at Washington, in reference to the proposed cent-a-gallon tax on fuel oil, that our national petroleum supply would play out soon. "Present drilled reserves," it was said, would supply oil for less than three years at the present rate of production, which is about 1,000,000,000 barrels a year. The prospect looked bad for the oil industry.

It looks better in a later report from the American Petroleum Institute. The Institute's estimate, based on reserves in known fields, together with new fields where drilling has gone far enough for accurate calculation, gives this country total oil reserves of 15,500,000,000 barrels. That would be about enough to last for 15 years if the recent average rate of consumption were not increased. New reserves found last year amounted to almost one year's supply.

The Institute points out that the "known reserves" are now greater than they have ever been. Yet it is evident that we are draining the total supply very fast, taking and using up nearly two-thirds of the world's production. There is no assurance of finding more reserves as usual, and sooner or later there will be no more.

Meanwhile consumption continues to increase, as new uses are found for this wonderful mineral and more oil is burned for fuel. There is too much of the "eat, drink and be merry" spirit with such resources. We can make oil from coal when we have to, but it will cost more and will not be so good.

NAVAL DEFENSE

If our government undertakes to build a navy "large enough to defend both our coast lines simultaneously," which means an adequate and independent fleet in both the Atlantic and Pacific, it is going to cost a lot of money. It is also going to lay the United States open to charges of "navalism" and "potential aggression." Japanese statesmen and spokesmen for some of their European allies are already making such accusations.

Uncle Sam can afford to ignore such talk in Fascist countries, as long as those who indulge in it are the very ones driving us to undesired armament. We do not want two big war fleets any more than they want us to have them. But the world may as well understand that Uncle Sam, while wearing an olive branch in his hat, will do what he has to do in order to make America safe for Americans.

For a nation in our position a strong navy is the natural substitute for a strong army, and necessarily defensive, not offensive.

There are two alternatives to this double war fleet by which the United States in its home waters, can face both ways at once, with guns pointed toward Asia and Europe. One is for Japan and her European allies to reverse their present attitude, get out of other people's countries and stop acting and talking like international gangsters. The other is for us to build another canal, at sea level, doubling or trebling our facilities for getting warships quickly from one ocean to the other. The former alternative seems very unlikely and the latter would take longer than building another fleet.

Uncle Sam, nevertheless, is still willing to be shown. It's up to the warmakers.

Citrus Fruits Spread Precious Vitamins Through Winter

Those lines about the "Winter of our discontent" must have preceded the days of abundant citrus fruit. For the discomforts of icy winds certainly are offset to some extent by the golden, sweet oranges and juicy grapefruit available at this season.

The thrifty homemaker, concerned with budget problems, probably has noted already that each week in 1938 has seen an appreciable dropping in food costs. Now comes the welcome news that citrus fruits are—and will continue to be a good buy. Prices one year ago were boosted when heavy frosts severely damaged California's winter crops.

Washington estimates that the largest orange crop on record will be picked during the current season 1937-38. It will be at least 25 per cent larger than the average for the past five years, judging by the present outlook.

The grapefruit crop is forecast at 25,500,000 boxes; the second largest production on record. Oranges enough to fill 41,000,000 boxes will be taken from groves in Florida, California and some other states this winter. This is 3,000,000 more than last year, and 8,000,000 above the average of the preceding five years.

The consumer is benefitting from the fact that a year's agreement among growers controlling shipments of fruit from Florida came to an end in early December, and heavy quantities now are pouring in. The quality of the fruit, particularly the oranges, is high, too, for Florida drew a chilly spell of just the right temperature to bring the fruit now in market to a nice maturity.

Although through the ages citrus fruits have been appreciated, it is only within the last generation that they have been generally distributed and recognized as important contributors to our well being. What fruits belong to the citrus family? There are many varieties of oranges, grapefruit, lemons and limes. Tangerines, mandarins, kum-

PROF. J. D. FLINT

HELLO PROFESSOR?—
WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DAYTIME—
NIGHTTIME—AND ANY-TIME?

Richard Richards, a writer, spent many years in a log cabin on an island in a beautiful lake up north.

One morning, as he walked out the door, Richards noticed that the sun was just rising above the horizon on his left. He knew that on that day it would be ten hours before the sun would sink beneath the opposite horizon. When Richards returned to his cabin he noticed, as he reached the cabin door, that the sun was still on his left and was one quarter of its arc above the horizon.

How long had Richards been gone?

quats and satsumas are special varieties of the orange family.

All of them are valuable for their vitamin C content, a necessity for the winter diet, particularly when colds threaten. They also provide goodly amounts of vitamins A, B and C, and have a fairly high content of vitamins B and G.

Oranges and grapefruit contribute both calcium and phosphorus and lemon juice provides the former. As a rule, the natural fruit acids aid digestive processes, although they are alkaline after absorption.

Oranges now run a close second to apples as the American fruit most abundantly produced. In recent years, the Florida citrus fruit season has been starting earlier and earlier. Now it begins in October, whereas it opened just before Christmas not many years ago.

We consume about 50 per cent more oranges than were used fifteen years ago and about four times as much grapefruit than we demanded ten years ago. Southern groves now total some 10,000,000 grapefruit trees and only about one-third of them have reached bearing age, so the supply of fruit will be increasing with future demands.

The experienced buyer knows that grapefruit should be "hefted" for quality. The keen shopper knows that it should be heavy for its size and well-shaped. Grapefruit that boasts a thin, tight skin is a good buy. Coarse-skinned fruit has a lower juice content. Most of the skin blemishes, such as scratches, discolorations and scars, affect only the appearance of the fruit, not the quality.

Much of the present bumper crop will be canned as juice and hearts. For this reason the government has issued grades for grapefruit juice. To rate U. S. Grade A, canned juice must have an "oyster white" color, contain no particles of fruit, skin or seeds and have a "distinct grapefruit flavor." It must score 90 out of a possible 100 on these points.

The grapefruit juice industry has grown rapidly in the last few years. Government chemists report that in the Rio Grande Valley alone, thirty-five factories will manufacture grapefruit juice this season, using methods that have been developed in the course of two years for preserving the juice.

Many of the excellent Florida "juice" oranges now crowding the market are selling for two cents apiece. Russet coloring in oranges and grapefruit usually indicates a sweet fruit, with ample juice, so do not insist on a pure yellow skin in Florida citrus fruit. In California naval oranges, high color is an indication of ripeness, so choose a deep orange in that fruit, which is so ideal for marmalade.

Did you know that oranges and grapefruit may be telegraphed now, just as flowers are wired? Florida and California growers have arranged the special citrus fruit service with the wire companies.

Although home economists usually favor advance preparation of foods, orange juice is one exception. It should not be squeezed the night before for breakfast, since it loses much of the vitamin content if it is left exposed to the air more than a short time.

Provide Reflectors for Highway Workers

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 24—(AP)—Pennsylvania highway workers will wear red reflectors to guard them from motorists at night.

Samuel W. Marshall, chief engineer of the highway department, has ordered 750 men fitted out with belts and shoulder straps studded with bits of red glass to blink back approaching automobile headlights.

If the experiment works, Marshall said, 5,000 of the belts will be purchased.

In the United States, the cotton picking season averages 100 days annually.

UNION LEAGUERS SOUND CALL TO ALL PATRIOTS

Chicago Club Conducts Nation-Wide Non-Partisan Campaign

Chicago—Feb. 24—A stirring call to citizens to help get America back to its first principles of government has been sounded by the Union League Club of Chicago, famous old standard bearer of loyalty since Civil War days.

Acting in what its members declare is a new major American crisis, the club is conducting a national non-partisan crusade to re-arm citizens with a knowledge of fundamentals. The fundamentals are enunciated in a "restatement of principles" which declares for free and unbridled responsibility and action by the three divisions of government and condemns "subversive tendencies" undermining the constitution and the American system.

Emblazoned over the restatement in red letters is the commanding slogan, "America, Wake Up!" Beneath the restatement in bold-face type is the statement: "We heartily commend those members of the National Congress in either of its branches, regardless of party, who oppose such subversive tendencies and uphold the basic principles of our government. We call upon all citizens x x x to join in active support of such members."

With these words the "America, Wake Up" crusade marks itself as a constructive movement, according to President Nicholas J. Conrad of the Union League Club.

"We Give You" Crusade
"This is not a 'give me' crusade," said Conrad in an interview. "Instead we are saying, 'We give you.' What we have to give is the encouragement and support of aroused voters to those who demonstrate their loyalty in Congress at the risk of their public careers."

"America's greatest need is a rebirth of patriotism. There is unrest everywhere and our citizens require some one thing which all of us can uphold in common, to which all can rally. That is what we have to offer them."

"Confused by propaganda, we let our fundamentals become befogged and obscure. The Union League crusade offers them in essence to the nation as guidance in judging the actions of the people's elected representatives."

"If the people will give positive proof of their regard for the traditional American system of government and their concern lest it be hamstrung or destroyed, they will go a long way toward preserving it."

The Union League Club has received letters from many cities requesting copies of the restatement. The club's non-resident members in nearly 250 cities located in 37 states and the District of Columbia have been asked to accept responsibility for drawing attention to the restatement in their communities. In other cities, organizations of a patriotic character will conduct local crusades.

The restatement endorses the traditional American form of government and lists as subversive tendencies:

The use of official power and public funds to influence elections and control Congressmen; the centralization of authority in Washington; the creation of class distinctions; dictation by blocs and pressure groups; and the infringement, by violence, of the basic laws "by organized groups relying on

Provided the distorted legs are not due to rickets or walking too early (which does not often cause bow legs or knock knees)—they are truly inherited and are inherited separately. That is, the knock knees are due to one set of genes and the boy legs to another set. So, some of the children will have Ted's bow legs and some Mabel's knock knees, owing to which set of genes got into the germ-cell each was born from.

If a woman has been deceived and disappointed—it is usually the woman—she should at least be allowed to keep sacred this much of her hours of romance and beauty. Reading them to the public only feeds their sordid curiosity, does nothing to promote justice and humiliates both writer and recipient. They should be read only in the judge's chambers.

True, the movies are not perfect in their teachings about life but they have surely improved dress—especially of women—manners and social customs and raised the desires for good furniture and beautiful surroundings. Most of them picture an ideal world and leave us in a desire to realize that world for ourselves. At least that's my general impression and I'm a movie fan.

Bread And Butter Side Of Basic Law Made America Great

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 23—(AP)—Representative Samuel Pettengill (D-Ill.) said in an address here last night that "the bread and butter side of the constitution has made America the great nation it is today."

Speaking at the annual Coeur club's Washington Day banquet, the South Bend, Ind., congressman said "this document has given us security in the face of tumult and turbulence."

"Yet demagogues appeal to the people that it has served its purpose. These demagogues have yet to demonstrate how we became the greatest nation in the world in the shortest period of time by doing everything wrong."

"There are those who say you cannot eat the Constitution," the representative told the city's business and professional men. "Speaking from a dietary standpoint this is true," he said, "but it is no more correct to say you cannot eat the Sermon on the Mount or the Ten Commandments."

Paul Hymans, former Belgian foreign minister, paid tribute to Hoover as "the illustrious representative of that liberal democracy which is the hope of all those in the old world who defend liberty and the rights of individuals."

The poems written by Chedmon, seventh century Anglo-Saxon poet, have been lost, though paraphrased of his work survive.

INVESTIGATION OF COMMODITY PRICES FOUGHT

Norris Doesn't Think Committee Equipped To Do the Job

Washington, Feb. 24—(AP)—Widespread opposition developed in the Senate today to a proposal by Senator Bailey (D-NC) for a congressional investigation of commodity prices.

Bailey sought a vote on a committee-approved resolution to appropriate $25,000 for a 30-day inquiry into monopolistic practices as they affect prices paid by consumers.

Some administration supporters, however, were quick to question whether a $25,000 fund would do any more than "scratch the surface."

"I don't think any congressional committee is equipped to do the job," commented Senator Norris (Ind-Rep.). "If an inquiry were made, it ought to be very broad and comprehensive."

An investigation could be handled by the federal trade commission, he added, but not with such a "wholly inadequate" appropriation.

The trade commission spent $250,000 in an investigation of farm prices alone, Norris pointed out.

"If we are going to try to get the facts about monopolistic price fixing," Senator LaFollette (Vt-Rep.) declared, "there should be a study of the whole question of monopoly and competition. It would be futile to attempt to do it in a month."

'Ghost Slayer' of Baby is Found Sane

Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., Feb. 24—(AP)—Henry J. Nead, 19, who Sheriff J. Becker said confessed the "ghost slaying" of his child-wife's 6-week-old son, will be returned here for trial at the term of circuit court starting March 14.

Alienists of the Central State hospital at Waupun reported today they had found Nead sane.

Becker said that after the slaying Christmas morning at Vesper, Wis., Nead signed a bizarre confession that he killed the boy, of whom he said he was not the father, at the bidding of his father's ghost, and that "token knocks" shouled an eerie prelude to the killing.

Nead was committed to the hospital Dec. 29 for observation when he pleaded innocent by reason of insanity.

DISAGREEMENT
Washington, Feb. 24—(AP)—The house labor committee discussed four proposed wage-hour bills today but a Republican member said there were not two members of the group in agreement on any one.

Chairman Norton (D-NJ.) announced the committee would meet again tomorrow and expressed hope a definite policy would be evolved.

CHANCELLOR OF AUSTRIA TAKES UP HIS DEFENSE

Vienna, Feb. 24—(AP)—The Austrian government "is directing all its efforts toward Austria's freedom and independence," Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg declared tonight in his speech explaining the republic's new relations with the German reich.

"The question of our existence is involved and we are banded together seeking a solution of this special task," declared the scholarly Chancellor.

"The constitution recognizes no parties and no party state. It is based on the profession and guild principle of the people. x x x Therefore there are no coalitions either in political life or in the administration."

"The government will not and cannot therefore be, as in earlier times an administration of coalitions. But its pride still is to be a concentration of all positive forces of our people."

"The way to work, shown by the government, is to open to each Austrian who is ready to cooperate and devote his hours to reconstructive efforts."

"This is not time to debate over good or bad laws," declared Schuschnigg, as he began his explanation of the Reichsgesetzgebung with Reichsfuehrer Hitler, by which Nazi power thrust its way into the Austrian government.

"It is a time to appeal to the people's sense of responsibility," he continued. "The government and all its branches stand firmly behind the 1934 constitution."

Schuschnigg's immediate audience, a brilliant assemblage of 1,200 in the reichstag hall of the parliament building, interrupted almost every sentence with applause.

"What we Austrians want cannot and must not be designated by political concepts of red, black, brown and green, or by right or left."

"It is not a party-bound people's front, but a single compact front of our people in social strata and guild."

"The fight for independence is worthy when it succeeds in making the way clear to welfare, to the earning of daily bread, to happiness and to free soil."

"This common front of Austrians—to develop it and hold it—is the goal of the program of this administration."

Schuschnigg, speaking slowly and earnestly, traced briefly the struggle for Austrian independence from the time of the Emperor Maximilian down through succeeding reigns and governments.

Introducing his most anxiously-awaited subject, his visit to Berchtesgaden February 12, which he called a milestone to peace, Schuschnigg pointed out that he was fulfilling the Austro-German agreement of July 11, 1936 (recognizing Austria's independence) which he said had been obstructed by certain difficulties "in which there are sources of danger."

These, he said, had been noticed internationally as political sensations.

He declared that the purpose of his visit to Berchtesgaden, Hitler's retreat in the Bavarian Alps, was to reach a peace honorable to both sides with the object of ending five years of fratricidal strife. He said: "I think of Dollfuss' last words: 'We wanted only peace; we attacked no one.'"

"A dying man does not lie. He speaks the truth."

This referred to the assassination in July, 1934, of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss by Austrian Nazis.

Proposed—

told the committee congress should provide ship construction and repair facilities on the west coast. Equipment for this work on the Pacific is "hopelessly inadequate," he said.

The committee set today's session aside for house members but voted to limit the testimony of each to 10 minutes. Each committee member was given two minutes to interrogate individual witnesses.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) won approval of the time limitations in an effort to conclude testimony this week on the projected 20 percent naval increase. However, notice from Representative Church (R-Ill.) that he would insist on the committee subpoenaing Glenn L. Martin and other airplane manufacturers may prolong the hearings.

Church acted on a suggestion by Lester P. Barlow, Stamford, Conn., inventor, who said the nation's aircraft-makers could furnish testimony which would "change the whole military procedure of this nation's defense plans."

18th Birthday Of Nazis Observed
Berlin, Feb. 24—(AP)—Today is the Nazi movement's 18th birthday and an important one for millions of Adolf Hitler's followers in Germany, Austria and Czechoslovakia.

It was on Feb. 24, 1920, that Hitler in the now famed Hof Brau Haus in Munich formally announced creation of the National Socialist German Workers' party and proclaimed to an audience of 2,000 the party program of 25 points.

The first of those points was: "We demand union of all Germans in great Germany on the basis of the right of self-determination of the peoples."

TO FIGHT HOPPERS
Washington, Feb. 24—(AP)—The senate completed action today on a $2,000,000 appropriation for a campaign against grasshoppers and other insect pests and $5,000,000 to begin the new crop control program.

The measure now goes to the White House for President Roosevelt's signature.

Argentina imported more American motion pictures than any other country in 1937.

Of Interest to Women

Swedish Meat Balls

1/2 pound beef round
1/2 pound veal round
1/2 pound pork steak
1 cup crumbs (toast)
1/2 cup chopped celery
2 tablespoons minced onions
2 tablespoons minced parsley
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 cup cream
1 egg or 2 yolks
2 tablespoons butter, melted
1/4 cup flour
4 tablespoons fat

Put meats through a fine food chopper twice. Soak crumbs, seasonings and cream together for five minutes. Add to meats. Add egg and butter. Shape into one-inch balls. Roll in flour and brown quickly in fat heated in a frying pan. Cover. Lower heat and cook for 15 minutes. Serve on a warm platter and surround with fried noodles.

Tomato Sauce

3 cups tomatoes
1/2 cup water
2 onion slices
2 celery leaves
2 whole cloves
1/2 bay leaf
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon granulated sugar
2 tablespoons butter
4 tablespoons flour

Let all the ingredients except the butter and flour simmer together in a covered pan for 20 minutes. Press through a sieve. Add to the butter which has been mixed with the flour. Boil two minutes.

Glazed Apples

6 peeled apples (whole)
1/2 cups granulated sugar
1/2 cups boiling water
1 lemon slice
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
2 tablespoons butter

Boil sugar, water, lemon, spices and butter together for two minutes. Add the apples which have had the cores removed. Cover and cook slowly for ten minutes. Uncover and cook until tender.

Chicken Salad

8 cups diced cooked chicken
8 cups diced celery
1/2 cup minced pimientos
1/2 cup lemon juice
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
2 cups stiff mayonnaise
1 cup whipped cream

Mix cream with mayonnaise. Add half a cup of the mixture to the rest of the ingredients which have been combined. Chill. Serve in cups of crisp lettuce or from a bowl lined with lettuce. Top with rest of the mayonnaise. Garnish with capers and thin pimiento strips. Sprinkle with paprika.

Chicken used in this salad should not be minced. It should be cut with scissors into half-inch pieces.

Wedding Cake

1 1/2 cups butter
2 cups granulated sugar
1/2 cup strained honey
1/2 cup orange juice
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2 teaspoons cloves
1/2 teaspoon mace
8 egg yolks, beaten
2 cups chopped raisins
1 cup chopped currants
1/2 cup chopped candied pineapple
1/2 cup chopped candied orange peel
1/2 cup chopped candied lemon peel
1/2 cup chopped citron
1/2 cup chopped candied cherries
1 cup shredded almonds
1/2 cup broken pecans
3 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
8 egg whites, beaten

Cream butter and sugar. Add honey, fruit juices, vanilla, salt, spices and yolks. Beat together for two minutes. Add rest of the ingredients. Mix well. Fill two loaf pans which have been fitted with waxed papers two-thirds full of the batter. Bake three hours in a slow oven.

Cheese Souffle

3 tablespoons butter
5 tablespoons flour
2 1/2 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon celery salt
1/2 teaspoon minced celery
1/2 cup grated cheese
3 egg yolks
3 egg whites, beaten
1 teaspoon salt

Mix flour with butter. When blended add milk and cook until a creamy sauce forms, stirring constantly. Add seasonings, cheese and yolks. Beat two minutes. Fold in whites and salt. Bake 50 minutes in a pan of hot water in a slow oven.

Fruit Salad

1 1/2 cups diced apples
1/2 cup diced oranges
1/2 cup diced grapefruit
1/2 cup cooked prunes, seeded

1/2 cup diced celery
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Mix and chill ingredients. Serve on crisp lettuce and top with French dressing.

Grecian Rice Pudding

1/2 cup rice
3 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon powdered cinnamon
1/2 cup granulated sugar
4 tablespoons flour
3 egg yolks
1/2 cup hot milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon lemon extract
1/2 teaspoon almond extract

Cook the rice, three cups of milk, salt and cinnamon together for thirty minutes in a covered double boiler over a low heat. Stir frequently. Mix flour with sugar, yolks and hot milk. Add to rice and cook one minute, stirring constantly. Add extracts and pour into a buttered baking dish. Cover with meringue.

Meringue

3 egg whites
1/2 cup granulated sugar

Beat whites until stiff. Add sugar and beat until creamy. Roughly spread over rice mixture. Bake for 15 minutes in a slow oven. Cool.

Spice Cookies

(Makes two dozen)
1/2 cup fat
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg
1/2 cup buttermilk
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup nuts (optional)
2 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon soda

Cream fat and sugar. Add egg and buttermilk. Beat one minute. Add rest of ingredients and chill dough. Break off bits and flatten down two inches apart on a greased baking sheet. Bake ten minutes in a moderate oven.

Dried Beef, Bettina

1/2 pound dried beef
4 tablespoons fat
4 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon minced parsley
2 cups milk
1 hard-cooked egg, sliced
Shred beef with the fingers. Brown it in fat heated in a frying pan. Add flour. Cook slowly and stir constantly until well browned. Add rest of the ingredients and cook slowly for three minutes—or until the mixture is very thick and creamy.

Serve on mashed potatoes, buttered toast or crackers, noodles, rice or macaroni.

Banana Muffins

Try banana bran muffins for a change for the bread to be served at lunch-time.

Horseradish Relish

1/2 cup whipped cream
1 tablespoon granulated sugar
2 tablespoons vinegar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon celery salt
4 tablespoons prepared horseradish

radish
Mix ingredients with a fork. Serve in small glass dish.

Raisin Sauce

1/2 cup dark brown sugar
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup vinegar
1 cup raisins
1/2 cup orange juice

Blend sugar with flour and spices. Add the rest of the ingredients. Cover and let simmer for ten minutes. Stir frequently to prevent scorching. Serve warm.

The hero of Longfellow's "Hiawatha" was a 16th century Mohawk Indian chief, though he appears in the poem as an Algonquian.

Both Napoleon and Caesar were great administrators as well as great soldiers.

Loses Attempt To Construe Will Of Wealthy Father

Chicago, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Merry Fahmney, patent medicine heiress who recently won a divorce from her third husband, Baron Arturo Berlingieri, lost a court decision in another case yesterday.

The Cook county circuit court refused her motion to dismiss a suit to construe the will of her father, the late Emery Fahmney. The suit was to determine what share of the $3,500,000 Fahmney fortune should go to 6-year-old Peter Parker Pickering, son of Merry Fahmney by a previous marriage. The boy was adopted by Emery Fahmney, but counsel for Merry questioned his right to an equal share of the estate.

Hammerle Rites At Home Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Ed Hammerle were held from her late home at 2 P. M. Tuesday.

Jennie May Norman was born in Rutland, Ill., May 19, 1883, the youngest child of Robert and Ida Norman. In 1895, the family moved to a farm where the town of Normandy now stands. She attended public school in Walnut and graduated in 1900. She also attended Bradley Institute in Peoria. She was a teacher for a number of years. She was married Sept. 20, 1915 to Ed Hammerle. They have resided in Walnut ever since with the exception of a short time when they were engaged in business in Normandy.

Her father died Dec. 8, 1900 and her mother April 28, 1926 and a brother Roy, July 26, 1934. She is survived by her husband and two brothers, Frank and Charles of Winnebago, Minn., also an uncle E. J. Brooks and cousins in Peoria and Ohio.

She was very active in the M. E. church, Eastern Star, W. R. C. and Royal Neighbors until about twelve years ago when her health failed. She had been ill for about five weeks and she fell peacefully asleep early Sunday morning.

Shrine Presented By Legion Post Is Much Appreciated

The Shrine presented to the high school on Tuesday afternoon by the American Legion was a very appropriate and historical gift. This gift is of bronze metal and comprises a standard which holds a book that opens and closes. This book is of three metal plates on which are duplicates of the original form of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence and the signers. These are covered with glass for preservation. Professor Snider is highly pleased that Walnut high school is the recipient of such a valuable gift. The grade school was dismissed to attend the services.

ROUSING CHARIVARI

TOWNSEND CLUB MET

The Oregon Townsend club met in the court house last evening. A large attendance from this section of the county were present. The meeting was called to order by President R. I. Short. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Secretary Burns Bacon stating that George Huffman has been elected as a delegate to represent the Oregon Townsend club at a congressional meeting to be held in Dixon, Sunday, February 27th, 1938.

A very impressive talk was given by President Short on the subject "Youths of Today" showing what the Townsend Plan has to offer to the unemployed youth of today. Plans are being contemplated to form a club in Byron in the near future and also a drive is being planned to enroll the young people of this locality, for a Youth Townsend club.

CONDUCTS SURVEY

The state sanitary water board has conducted a survey of the city and towns along Rock river, for the purpose of improving the sanitary conditions of the waterway. For this reason the city council has decided to install a sewerage disposal plant, if possible, on the Amos Enmen property south of the city. An extension of the sewerage system is being contemplated if the necessary funds can be raised for that purpose. Plans are also being made for the remodeling of the city reservoir. A sewerage treatment charge to be made on the consumption of water used during the winter months is also being considered by the city council, to meet the added expenses that will be incurred for the maintenance of the sewerage disposal plant.

Leaf River Advances at Franklin Grove; Steward, Lee Triumph at Steward

Rollo, G. R. V. C. Champ Swings Into Action Tonight

(Telegraph Sports Service)
Franklin Grove, Feb. 24—Leaf River fired the opening gun of the district tournament here last night and hit its target squarely with a crushing 51 to 25 basketball victory over Forreston.

Preceding the game the state championship Forreston band entertained the crowd with a 45-minute concert that proved it is an organization of exceptional talents.

In the game that followed Leaf River held a slim 9 to 8 first quarter lead and then got busy and piled it up to 33-12 at half time increasing this to 42-19 in the third quarter. Taubert, Leaf River's classy forward, was especially handy with his one-handed shots. He made thirteen of Leaf River's points. Stubbe of Forreston who sank seven points for the losers was good at the free throw line.

In other first round games tonight Kings will tangle with Harmon in the first game at 7:30 P. M. and Franklin Grove will meet Byron in the second game at 8:30 P. M.

Steward, Feb. 21—Lee and Steward played into the second round of the district meet here Wednesday night, the former drubbing Compton 36 to 12 and the latter swamping Malta 38 to 13.

At half time Lee held a 25 to 6 advantage over Compton and Steward had a less secure 17 to 10 lead at the half-time intermission of their contest. A huge crowd witnessed the games. Tonight Rollo, champion of the Green River Valley conference, will swing into action against Creston and Paw Paw, victor over Rollo the past fortnight, will engage West Brooklyn. Both Rollo and Paw Paw are heavy favorites to advance into the semifinals.

TOURNAMENT GRINDS OPEN IN EARNEST

Little Burnside Is Still Undefeated This Season

By The Associated Press
Little Burnside, the Hancock county school with only 17 boys enrolled, still was undefeated and very much in the running for the Illinois state high school basketball championship today after last night's first round bombardment of district games.

Even more action was promised tonight as several more districts join in the statewide firing. High scores predominated last night and little Burnside was one of the chief contributors. It trounced Nauvoo in the Plymouth district, 66 to 16, to achieve its 24th consecutive win of the season.

Thawville Wins, 73-18

However, it was up to Thawville of the Martinton district to establish the biggest score of the evening—a 73 to 18 triumph over Bonfield. Bonfield came next with a 70 to 27 win over Dix in the Wayne City event. At Milton, fans sent out the cry of "watch Milton" after its 64 to 28 conquest of New Canton.

In contrast to the one-sided scores, Altona and Niles Center were forced into overtime to win their games—Altona defeating Wataga 28 to 26 at Maquon and Niles Center tripping Warren Township, 37 to 26, at Wauconda. Among the one-point winners were Aldred, Troy, Alhambra, Kansas and Warrenburg. The Highland district had two of the thrillers—Troy taking Lebanon, 35 to 34, and Alhambra stopping Worden, 45 to 44.

That low scoring was not entirely ignored can be gleaned from the Red Bud district where Baldwin won a 12 to 6 decision over Prairie du Rocher.

Joliet Survives Junior College Tourney Rounds

Chicago, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Joliet was the only entry outside the Chicago area still in the running for the sixth annual Illinois junior college basketball tournament title today following its 36 to 34 triumph over Springfield last night. After trailing, 31 to 28, Joliet spurred ahead and then repulsed a Springfield counter rally in the last few minutes.

LOUIS POISON TO THOSE WHO SLUG AT HIM

Natie Mann, Learns Bomber's Fists Are Lethal

New York, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Standing up courageously and slugging it out like a basket of wildcats with Joe Louis still is one of the surest methods known of getting knocked all out of shape, as Natie Mann was telling his Connecticut friends between cut lips today.

Natie wanted to know, and he found out to the lasting satisfaction of himself and 19,490 paying fans in the Garden last night, when the brown-skinned champion gave him a sickening beating and left him on the floor, with not a thought in his head, in 1:56 of the third round.

Making the second defense of the title he won only last June, the big Negro looked like a composite of all those superlatives lavished on him two winters ago as he cut down and tore apart the farmer kid who thought he could slug it out with him. If the Bomber ever went anywhere, he's back among us.

Unmarked, not even blowing from the brief workout, he sat later and said he would like one more tune-up before his month-long encounter with Max Schmeling in June. Pomoter Mike Jacobs promised to pick an opponent for Joe today, and the betting was it would be Harry Thomas, at Chicago, with Jimmy Adamiak an outside choice.

Easier Outside Elsewhere
There are easier ways of making money than being on the receiving end of the brutal lefts and rights that spilled Mann four times last night and left his brain addled for 20 minutes after he was counted out.

"If I had it to do over again, I'd never try to fight him like that," said Natie, sadly, as his four husky brothers tried to console him in his dressing room. "I didn't know a thing after he tagged me the first time early in the second round."

It was a left hook to Natie's jaw. He didn't go down, only drifted against the ropes for a space, and neither Louis nor the yelling crowd, including 6,000 extra-loud Connecticutans, knew Natie was out on his feet. He was knocked down for a nine-count later in the round, and in the fatal third fought Louis all over the ring and was down three times without having a glimmer of what was going on.

as Arthur Donovan yelled "ten" in my ear."

Which gave a hint, however hazy, of the lethal power in Louis' fists. Mann never had been knocked out before. The boxer who wants to woo and weave and play it cute still can make the champion look less gaudy than he did last evening, no doubt, but no fighter could have stood up under the barrage that assailed Mann.

On the strength of his superb showing against a fighter who, admittedly, was made to his order, Louis' stock probably will rise sharply against Schmeling. The Negro has regained the old fire that was sadly lacking when Max pinned his ears back two summers ago.

True to His Word

To Mann's credit, it can be said he was true to his word. Foolhardy as it looked in retrospect, he went after Louis and threw his right. He even made the opening round fairly close by banging Joe's jaw with a couple while the champ remained impassive behind his long left jab.

He made a mistake, though, when he kept it up in the second. Natie sailed in and put across some thumpers as his home-town rooters raved. Suddenly, Louis began fighting back viciously. In the first real mixup he planted the left hook that engulfed Mann's senses. A moment later he slugged him to the canvas for nine, and only the bell saved Natie for another round.

Louis was without mercy when they came out again. Two lefts crashed his fogged rival to the floor for short counts before a final right, packing all of Joe's 200 pounds behind it, put the game kid down for good. He was counted out on one knee as he stared glassily at the referee.

Despite the abandon with which he threw punches, Louis' fists came out of it in perfect condition. His camp, secretly, had been

For Love of Polly

By RACHEL MACK

Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
POLLY CLITTE, heroine stranded in London when war breaks out.
JERRY WHITEFIELD, hero; the Yankee who sees her through.
CABELL BANKS, privateer
 captain.

Yesterday, Jerry and Polly boarded the Clitte smuggling ship and plans to rescue her from Clitte, thus justifying her faith in him now.

CHAPTER XX
JERRY and Cabell Banks went to the bow where the man with two names and two ways of speaking stood holding the wheel, a massive man with an insolent face and shifting eyes. The bright scarf tied about his head gave a Latin cast to his crafty, handsome features, so that you thought of a pirate of the Mediterranean Sea.
 Yet he was not entirely Latin either. There was in him the stubborn cruel look of the Anglo-Saxon who worships brute force. A half-breed man, carrying in his veins
 the worst traits of two races.

Jerry asked, "Are we your only passengers?"
 Clitte's eyes slid around, then focused again on a curve in the French shore line. "No." He had read in Jerry's face some knowledge.

"Who else besides us?"
 "An old dame. . . French," he added.
 Jerry and Cabell exchanged swift glances. They were acting without plan. Step by step must do it. "We saw her at the cabin port," Banks stated. "It may surprise you to know that she's not French and not at all old. . . Or does it?"

Jerry started to speak in the silence, but Banks lifted a warning eyebrow. Jerry's impetuous handling of the situation might be fatal. "No doubt this news surprises you, Monsieur Clitte," Cabell repeated in French. "We have spoken with the lady. She tells us she is American, the same as ourselves. She has asked us to see her ashore."

"She does?" said Clitte in French. His hand started to shift from the wheel to his belt, where a pistol hung, then desisted. His sliding eyes had seen their pistols, drooping from their hands with a sort of tender carelessness. Not one of his own men was within hail.

Jerry's nerves snapped. He could not endure this French patter that left him in ignorance of what went on. He said to Clitte,
 "You've locked her in!"
 "Absentmindedly, no doubt," murmured Cabell Banks. He believed that much more can be done with a man who has not lost face. He watched Clitte intently and saw his method almost work.

Then came defiance. "What if I have? It's my ship."
 Two pistols were raised a few inches and held rigid. "The key to the cabin!" Cabell requested.
 "Give it to me and I'll go unlock the door. You'll need to stay at the wheel. My friend here will stay with you to keep you from being lonely."

JERRY CLITTE, sometimes known as John McGeen, took from around his neck an iron key that hung on a chain and tossed it to Cabell Banks. He appeared not to notice that Jerry Whitefield's pistol still covered him as Banks moved quickly off. The exigencies of a smuggler's life had no doubt taught him that dangerous games must be played quietly. He would wait. . . .

Down in the cabin Polly heard a key grate in the lock. She hoped it would be Jerry and feared it would be Clitte. Her quick wits told her to be thankful for this compromise. The wiry, homely young man from Boston was bowing to her in his polished, impersonal way.

"Put on your wig, Miss Chelsey," he said, quite like a parent telling a child to don its bib.
 "Then follow me on deck."
 "Wait till I pick up the dog.
 Are you taking me to Jerry, Mr.
 Banks?"

Cabell considered a moment.
 "Well, no, Miss Chelsey. He's at the wheel, standing his trick, you might say, with our brave skipper.
 You come with me to the rope ladder. I want you to be the first to leave the lugger. . . . Would you mind bending your pretty back and looking a little more ancient?"
 . . . That's it! Thank you. Lean on your stick very hard now and follow me."

Jerry meanwhile, was taking a more direct course with Clitte than Cabell Banks would have advised.
 Strategy was as unnatural with him as was diplomacy. He did not find it in his nature to play chess for Polly with this rascal.

He said, "Miss Chelsey's my sweetheart and we're going to be married. I'll kill anybody that makes a move to harm her."
 Clitte did not reply. He was skillfully bringing the lugger into a small, desolate-looking harbor where several fishing boats rode at anchor and a few shacks lined the shore. To leeward of the lugger a large sloop of war could be seen passing the little harbor. He had beat it. He had, in fact, dodged through a sail-infested Channel all night, and with more adroitness than anybody but a smuggler could appreciate. He desired nothing so much now as a long drink of liquor and a chance to get his cargo ashore.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gilmore of Compton were business callers here on Wednesday afternoon.

been bringing him a lot of acclaim. This is the trip of the six giant Army bombers to Buenos Aires.

Real truth is that Harry vetoed this trip. The State Department put it up to him several weeks ago and urged that the planes be sent to President Ortiz's inauguration as a move to offset Bruno Mussolini's flight. But Harry said No. He didn't have any planes to be wasted on a junket of this kind.

Then by the sheerest accident, a newspaperman who writes for various South American newspapers thought of the idea of sending bombers to Argentina and went to the State Department. It replied that the idea already had been turned down by Woodring.

But the newspaperman, knowing how things run in the War Department, went around Woodring to his Assistant Secretary of War, Louis Johnson. Johnson, who is a dynamic, hard-hitting individual, thought the idea was grand, and immediately took it to the President.

Roosevelt was equally enthusiastic and sent a virtual order over to Woodring that six Army bombers should fly to Buenos Aires for the inauguration of the Argentine President. The President did not mention, however, that Assistant Secretary Johnson had sold him the idea. So next morning in General Staff meeting, Harry Woodring announced the air junket to Argentina.

He thought he was disclosing something to Johnson for the first time and Johnson did not disillusion him. Probably not until he reads this will Harry appreciate the accident which caused him to get all the kudos and acclaim from sending the flying fortresses to Buenos Aires.

No Philippines Recently Harry has been offered several substitute jobs in place of being Secretary of War, one of them being High Commissioner to the Philippines. But Harry says that the Philippines are no place to educate children.

It has become so apparent that the President would like to promote his Secretary of War to some other job, that Harry has become super-sensitive about it, as the guests at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. "Chip" Robert the other day can bear witness.

The blonde and glamorous Evie Robert had seated Justice Stanley Reed on her right and Secretary of War Woodring on her left.

"Harry," she said, "I'm so glad you don't care anything about rank."

"No," of course not," replied the gentlemen on her left, gulping a little, "and Helen (Mrs. Woodring) doesn't either." (Which, of course, is not at all true, but Harry has his moments of gallantry.)

"Harry, I've got to send a message to Chip at the next table," Mrs. Robert continued. "Do you mind very much taking a message to him for me?"

The Secretary of War hesitated for one brief instant, giving Justice Reed the chance to volunteer, then jumped into action.

Unfortunately for Harry, Chip Robert, seated at another table, was not so omniscient a host as his wife thought he should be, so she had to call upon the Secretary of War three times during the dinner to remind Chip about this or that.

Finally, at the very end of the dinner, Chip was supposed to call upon Senator Barkley, the guest of honor, for a speech, and Evie had to send one final reminder to her husband. With obvious hesitation she turned to the Secretary of War for one more errand.

"Harry, dear," she said, "would you mind very much being my ambassador?"

Evie never had time to finish the sentence. To the amazement of her guests, Harry Woodring, irritated and abrupt, interrupted with: "No, Evie, I wouldn't consider being ambassador to any country. They've asked me that before."

So undismayed out by the President, himself, Harry Woodring is in the War Department for the duration of the New Deal combat. (Copyright, 1938, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Unhappily for Harry, Chip Robert, seated at another table, was not so omniscient a host as his wife thought he should be, so she had to call upon the Secretary of War three times during the dinner to remind Chip about this or that.

Man, 27, Convicted Of Brutal Murder

West Plains, Mo., Feb. 24.—(AP)—A jury convicted 27-year-old Douglas L. Shedd of torch murder and recommended life imprisonment for the slaying and burning of two elderly sisters during a robbery last November 2.

The bodies of the women, Miss Lillian Gregory, 64, and Miss Bertha Gregory, 67, were found in the ashes of their home.

Shedd was convicted of killing Miss Lillian. Lyman Tripp, 23, was tried separately last month and given a life term for the death of Miss Bertha.

New Rules

Post Office Department Regulations Received Here

Copies of a new postal regulation have been received at the local postoffice which effects chiefly, automobile dealers, motor clubs, garages, department stores, banks, notaries public and others accepting applications for automobile license plates for transmittal to the state automobile department, outside the mails or without payment of adequate postage. The postal department has ruled as follows:

A "letter" is a message, notice, or other expression of thought sent by one person to another. It is just as much a letter if sent in an envelope from one to another unsealed as if sealed, or whether in an envelope at all, if it is directed as a letter. If matter conveys live current information between the sender and the addressee, upon which the latter may act, rely, or refrain from acting, such matter is a "letter" within the meaning of the Private Express statutes.

Applications for automobile and driver's licenses are "letters" when forwarded for the purpose of having licenses issued in response thereto and may not be conveyed for others outside the mails without the payment of postage by concerns or individuals who are receiving compensation for such services.

Even though no direct charge is made for the service, if the individual or concern transporting the applications or causing them to be transported receives all or part of the notary fee, the Department holds that compensation for such service has been received.

The application of each individual or concern constitutes a "letter" when sent for purpose of securing a license. Applications of various persons may be grouped and mailed in one package provided the package is endorsed on the outside to show the number of separate applications enclosed and there are stamps affixed to the package sufficient to cover the postage at the rate of three cents each, (two cents for local delivery) on the application of each person so that the department will receive the same revenue as it would if the application of each person were mailed separately.

If the agent prefers to have the applications transported and delivered outside the mails, he may do so by placing each application in a stamped envelope in accordance with the provisions of section

1712, postal laws and regulations, 1932, which reads as follows:

All letters enclosed in stamped envelopes, if the postage stamp is of a denomination sufficient to cover the postage that would be chargeable thereon if the same were sent by mail, may be sent, conveyed, and delivered otherwise than by mail, provided such envelope shall be duly directed and properly sealed, so that the letter cannot be taken therefrom without defacing the envelope, and the date of the letter or of the transmission or receipt thereof shall be written or stamped upon the envelope.

The department believes that most violations of the kind referred to are unintentional. It desires to obtain the cooperation of all in securing compliance with the statutes so that there will be no necessity for taking action that might result in serious inconvenience or difficulty and cause delay in the issuance of license plates.

Metal Craftsmen Win Collective Bargain Rights

Chicago, Feb. 23.—(AP)—The association of consolidated metal crafts, an independent union, claimed victory today in a referendum conducted to determine the collective bargaining agency for six groups of Santa Fe railroad shop employees.

W. R. Ardery of Topeka, Kan., general chairman of the union, said the employees had cast 6,909 votes for the association and 2,677 for the American Federation of Labor railway employees' department. The votes were counted before Harrison H. Reed, a representative of the national mediation board.

The six crafts were the machinists, boiler-makers, sheet metal workers, carmen, electricians and blacksmiths. Two other crafts—the stationary engineers and the shop laborers—participated in the referendum but ballots were not counted pending the national mediation board's decision to tabulate them as representing one or two crafts.

The AF of L group requested the referendum on a claim of majority representation. Ardery said the association held a contract with the railroad.

COLLECTIONS GO UP Poplar, England.—(AP)—The Rev. Mr. Kenneth Ashcroft has no use for people who put a half-penny (one cent) in the collection plate when they can afford more.

"Such people should be slung out of the church, just as they would be slung out of any society, if they refused to pay their 'sub' (subscription)," he declared recently.

He adopted a less severe way of dealing with the situation, however, than the canon who warned his flock he would throw all half-pennies in the collection into the street—and carried out his threat.

The Rev. Mr. Ashcroft simply put his congregation on the spot by substituting an open collection plate for the traditional collection bag which conceals the amount being given. And collections went up 20 per cent, he said.

Cotton picking is the most costly operation in cotton production.
